

NIGHT FOR A CURE

CHILDREN'S CARDIOMYOPATHY FOUNDATION

VIRTUAL CHARITY POKER TOURNAMENT | FEBRUARY 10, 2021

MEET YOUR EVENT HOSTS AND CO-HOSTS FOR THE EVENING

The Children's Cardiomyopathy Foundation Night for a Cure Charity Poker Tournament is an exciting virtual event that will be live streamed with Faded Spade CEO Tom Wheaton serving as the tournament director and poker pros Matt Berkey and Jamie Kerstetter joining as co-hosts. Players will compete for final table prizes, including the grand prize of a $10,000 buy-in to the World Series of Poker (WSOP) Main Event in Las Vegas.

Tom Wheaton • Tournament Event Director

Tom Wheaton is a part-time professional poker player and Founder-CEO of Faded Spade. With 20 years of corporate leadership experience, Tom is now an entrepreneur focusing on companies that disrupt or evolve industries. He is also a proven podcast, virtual, and live event host, as well as a corporate public speaker in the areas of personal and professional growth.

Jamie Kerstetter • Event Co-Host

Jamie Kerstetter is a professional poker player and broadcaster, commentating for poker tours such as WPT, Run It Up, PokerGO, and the WSOP Main Event on ESPN alongside Lon McEachern and Norman Chad. She also co-hosts a Run It Once podcast, "The Rake." In 2019, she was Broadcaster of the Year Global Poker Award nominee and Twitter Personality of the Year winner.

Matt Berkey • Event Co-Host

Matt Berkey is a high stakes professional poker player and the Founder of the Solve for Why Academy, an innovative poker training business. He is creator of the unique Poker Out Loud show, host of the popular Solve for Why Vlogcast, and star of the Dead Money miniseries on PokerGO. As an authority in the poker industry, Matt is also a successful public and keynote speaker.
